Machine Details

2007 Kubota M-105-X Cab Tractor with Loader Attachment

Tractor serial number: 51111

The machine had a hay fork on the loader in place of a bucket.

Pictured is an example of an M-105-X for reference. The tractor serial number decal is on the left tractor frame (which should be gray), rearward of the front axle an inset from the loader frame (which should be orange).

Note that the serial number decal on the left loader upright near the cab is only for the loader and does not identify the tractor. At the time of this alert, the loader model and serial number were not available to NER.
